Anaïs Léger

veterinary epidemiologist

French: native
English: proficient user (C1)
German: proficient user (C1)

Academic Background

| | |
|---|---|
| 2019 | Diplomat of the European College of Veterinary Public Health www.ecvph.org |
| 2017 | Online course (3ETC) "Applied economics in animal health" at the Utrecht University |
| 2012 | DVM - Graduated from École Nationale Vétérinaire d'Alfort with the thesis "Trade and movement of meat dogs in Chongqing Municipality, China" (in French) |
| 2011-2012 | Master 2 SAEPS (Animal Health and Epidemiosurveillance in Tropical Countries) in Montpellier (International Center of Agricultural Research for Development (CIRAD) and Ecole Nationale Vétérinaire de Toulouse (ENVT)) |

Professional Background

| | |
|---|---|
| Mai 2018 - today | Post doc position at Global Studies Institute (University of Geneva)  - Involved in a research project called AMResilience about resilience of governance systems facing AMR in One Health contexts, creating a database AMR-Intervene for systematic description of interventions in their social ecological system  - Co-supervision of master students |
| Nov. 2015 – Dec 2018 | Veterinary epidemiologist at SAFOSO-AG (Swiss consultancy and capacity-building company) www.safoso.com  - involved in research programs about surveillance systems (Spare, Santero), economic analysis (NEOH, Calves project), video analysis for animal welfare at slaughterhouse, biostatistics analyses;  - conducted consultancy projects in animal health and evaluation, capacity buildings;  - organised training in statistics and epidemiology. |
| Jan. to June 2013 and Nov. 2013- Oct. 2015 | Scientific coordinator at ANSES (French Agency for Food, Environmental and Occupational Health & Safety) in the assessment direction about animal health, welfare and alimentation  - coordinated scientific committees of experts about animal health topics (organization and redaction);  - acquired methods in risk assessment of animal health and risk ranking of animal diseases;  - worked with multidisciplinary groups, about politically/socially complex topics. |
| July to Oct. 2013 | Project Engineer at INRA (French National Institute for Agricultural Research) in the unit « Science and society », part of a research in animal welfare in slaughterhouses  - conducted research in scientific, sociologic and media fields;  - built a sociologic investigation among actors of animal welfare in slaughterhouse and religious institutions. |
| March-August 2012 | Intern in epidemiology at the FAO in China, Beijing about rabies and avian influenza, in collaboration with the WHO, China.  - conducted a project on dog movements: setting up of questionnaires, management of data investigation on field, statistical analysis, cooperation with international organizations and field agents. |